AMASSARY 29 reported that it is said in London that the above named Subject married Bury only because Subject wanted to get out of Poland. Subject was married to Bury first by telephone between London and Warsaw, while she was still in Warsaw, and then married Bury again in a church ceremony in London in July or August 1960 when she arrived in London with her 9 year old daughter. Subject apparently learned that Bury had deposits in the amount of 1,700 £ in a London bank. After the London ceremony, Subject refused to live with Bury and divorce proceedings were begun. Bury hanged himself about three months ago. Subject is reported to have asked for political asylum in Germany.

2. We have asked AMASSARY 29 to prepare in the future these pieces of information in such a form that we may merely forward them to Headquarters without rewriting in dispatch form. We will rely on Headquarters to inform us as to whether or not further action is required by us in any particular case or whether or not the information is of operational interest to Headquarters.
